

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN JUDGES
2004 INDIANAPOLIS CONFERENCE
LOGO CONTEST RULES

The National Association of Women Judges (NAWJ) provides strong, committed judicial leadership to ensure fairness and gender equality in American courts.

Through effective judicial education and interaction, we promote equal access to justice for vulnerable population. We also offer professional and personal support to enable our members to achieve their full potential on the bench.

NAWJ is committed to diversity in our membership. Our organization welcomes both men and women. We include federal judges, and members from every state in the nation as well as international judges.

NAWJ provides an opportunity for judges to meet and discuss professional issues of mutual concern in a supportive atmosphere. Joining with others with the same values, we laugh, enjoy life and mentor one another nationwide.

1. A digital logo is needed for the 2004 At the Crossroads, National Association of Women Judges Conference.
2. The contest is open to all students enrolled in an Indiana school, verified by an academic advisor. All students are encouraged to submit their entries.
3. The entry submission shall consider the 2004 Conference theme "At the Crossroads."
4. The entry will be suitable for utilization in color, or black and white, on a variety of items for the conference, i.e. letterhead, t-shirts, coffee mugs, etc.
5. Artwork must be original. Design should not be copied from other artwork or published material. The artwork must be the student's own. Photographs, photocopies and computer "clip art" graphics are not allowed.
6. Each entry must include the attached entry form with the following information: student's name, home address, telephone number, age, grade, school name, school address and school telephone number.
7. The entry shall be submitted in digital form, on a floppy disk.
8. Color, and black and white camera-ready hard copies shall be submitted with the digital form.
9. The deadline for entries is May 1, 2003. Entries should be mailed to the Indiana Court of Appeals, c/o Kelly Merkle, National City Center, Suite 1270, 115 W. Washington Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204.
10. The winner will be invited to an event at the conference in October 2004, when they will be formally acknowledged and be presented with a plaque for their winning entry.
11. The copyright/trademark for the winning logo entry will be the property of the National Association of Women Judges. Where possible, the student will be acknowledged in the use of the logo.
12. The student will have the right to the use of the logo in presenting to any entity a record of their work and accomplishments.
13. The Indiana Court of Appeals will take every precaution to protect artwork, but will not be responsible for damage incurred during shipping. The Indiana Court of Appeals reserves the right to authorize the reproduction, in any form of artwork submitted, including the right to modify the designs for use after the competition. The decision of the judges is final.
14. Any questions regarding this contest should be referred to Kelly Merkle, (317) 233-3668, kmerkle@courts.state.in.us